EFFORTS CENTERED THERE

BERRY WILL COME TO PHILADELPHIA
WITH 40,000 PLURALITY—REPUBLICANS
SURE THEY CAN OVERCOME THIS.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Indications today are that Berry will come to Philadelphia with a plurality of about 40,000. Leaders of all parties admit that the result of the election hinges on this city. Therefore efforts are being made by the Republicans to poll a vote in this city which will overcome any plurality which the independent candidate may have in the state. Keystone leaders claim that it will

JOHN K. TENER

be impossible for Tener to poll enough votes in Philadelphia to overcome the vast lead they expect Berry to have in the country districts. Throughout the city reports are that the voting was unusually heavy today noon.
South Philadelphia is relied upon by the Republican organization for its greatest strength.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—
Reports from Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton and many other points about the State indicate today that an unusually heavy vote is being polled despite threatening weather conditions.
In some localities according to the reports of the different candidates today
it appears as if everybody has won the victory.

Lost Boy Found By a Policeman

Officer Thomas McDonald yesterday afternoon found a lost boy seated in a buggy along North Pittsburg street.
He took the lad to the police station
where he was kept until 4 o'clock,
finally being located by the father
John Furst.
Mr. Furst missed his lad during the afternoon and after a search over much of the town, finally appealed to the officer at Brimstone Corner.
It was then that McDonald directed the father to City Hall where the boy was taken home by his father.

Virginia Woman Recluse Murdered; Crime is Shrouded in Mystery

United Press Telegram.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 8.—The tangled threads of the extraordinary life story of Mrs. Annie N. White, who was beaten to death in her cottage on Columbus street are being unraveled today by the Alexandria police in the hope of finding a clue to the slayer.
The woman was a recluse. Although she was white, her only visitors were negroes and the supposition is that one of these was responsible for her death. The murder was one of the most brutal ever committed in this section. The woman was covered with bruises. Evidently having been kicked and stamped upon after she was knocked down. The upper part of the body was crushed and a stab wound

was found in her chest.
Thomas Ford, a negro, who admitted that he had called upon her twice,
is held by the police but denies knowledge of the crime. The only information the police have is the testimony of negro neighbors that at various times negroes were seen coming from the house.
The woman was 50 years old and little is known of her past.

PORK AND BEEF MEN GOING BACK

United Press Telegram.
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—The pork and beef packers of the city whose employees struck recently reported today
that nearly all of their men are returning to work and that there are only a few places in their plants that are not filled by former employees.
They say that many of the men went back to work this morning when the doors of the packing houses were thrown open for business, despite it being election day.

Market Alley May Be Opened Another Block

Steps are being taken to open Market alley for another block and today the property owners of that neighborhood
are getting together in an effort to arrange some plan by which the street
can be extended. Market alley now runs from Prospect to Traylor street
and ends there.
It is proposed to extend the street
through some vacant lots to the river which borders Connellville. If this is accomplished, it is expected that College avenue will be opened. If arrangements can be made, from Library
avenue to the new Market alley extension.
During the past few years there has been a development of the territory
within the confines of Prospect street,
the Connell run, river and Library
avenue.
In this territory in Traylor street where a number of residences are going up.
W. C. Bishop, who has purchased a lot from Thomas Jones at the corner of Traylor street and Market alley, will not build until the question of extending that alley is determined.

STRIKE CALL Postponed by Election Day

United Press Telegram.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The election
intervening today postponed for at least a day the calling of a general teamsters' strike in New York. No meetings are scheduled today by either the express drivers or the express companies, but a lot of secret work is being done. Tomorrow the executive council of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters will cast
the die one way or the other. The express companies will refuse even to promise the strikers that none of them will be discharged for having joined the strike.

Husband Meets the Man Who Stole Wife Away From Mt. Pleasant Home.

MT. PLEASANT, Nov. 8.—On account of the illness of Mrs. Lily Runbaugh, of Mount Pleasant, who eloped
several weeks ago with the young Italian, Robert DeNunzio, of this place, going to Milwaukee, a continuance of the hearing of her paramour
on the charges preferred against him was obtained Saturday morning. The hearing was to have been held at the hour when the parties in the case
appeared in this city.
Mrs. Runbaugh went to the Mount Pleasant hospital, Friday afternoon,
where it is said, she lies in a critical condition. Statements on the woman's trouble and condition cannot be obtained.
An amusing incident in the journey
of young DeNunzio and Frank Runbaugh, the woman's husband, together on the same trolley car from Mt.
Pleasant to Greensburg Saturday morning, is told.
Runbaugh, so the story goes, was on the car when young DeNunzio, Jr., and his father boarded it. DeNunzio, Jr.,
was entering ahead of DeNunzio, Sr.,
when he caught sight of the husband of the woman with whom he had run away.

THIRD CLASS CITY VOTE.

Second Ward Said To Be Against New
Form of Government—Connellsville
Will Go For the Republican Ticket
From Top to Bottom.

The Votes By Wards
At 1 O'clock.
First Ward 115
Second Ward 81
Third Ward 73
Fourth Ward 50
Fifth Ward 72
Sixth Ward 55
Seventh Ward 55
Total 516
Despite the excitement and turmoil of the campaign the indications are that not a record breaking vote will be cast in Connellsville today despite the importance of the issues at stake.

WARREN HARDING

Republican Nominee For Governor of Ohio.

Not only are the citizens to register
their choice in the selection of a Governor and other State officers, Congress for the district and members of the Legislature, the voters of Connellsville must pass on one of the most important questions ever laid before them, that of accepting or rejecting the proposition to become a city of the third class.

The weather all morning was threatening, but not disagreeable. It was not the kind of a day that usually brings out a record vote, but the issue
at stake are such that one would expect the electorate to turn out in full strength.
Before noon a nasty drizzle set in
and this will probably have a tendency to keep the vote down.

There is apparently but little interest manifested in the third class city proposition. There is some opposition.
It developed more keenly in the Second Ward, where some of the politicians are said to have gone into the light determined to roll up a big vote against it. It is not believe, however, that any majority the Second Ward workers can roll up against the proposition will offset the vote in favor of it that is looked for from the other wards, with the possible exception of the First. At this time were some this morning willing to bet real money that the First will go for the city proposition.

There is hardly any question but that Connellsville will go for the Republican ticket. The Keystone movement never gained any particular strength in this section. The Democrats, it is predicted, may split up their votes between Grin and Berry,
but this will only tend to increase John K. Tener's big plurality in the town. Mr. Tener is expected to carry the balance of his ticket through with him. That Thomas S. Crago will be favored here for Congress there seems to be not the slightest doubt.
Joe H. Wise's eccentric campaign did not gain him votes here while Crago's quiet methods proved far more effective.
In Connellsville, however, the vote
on the city charter overshadows all other issues.

DISLOCATED JAW BONE YAWNING TOO VIGOROUSLY.

As the result of yawning too
vigorously the other evening,
Miss Anna Ayres, of the West Side, was admitted to the Out-patient State hospital with her right jaw-bone dislocated.
Miss Ayres met with the accident about a week ago just after she had been yawning considerably. The bone was reset this morning.

High School Students Strike; Lock Principal in Building.

United Press Telegram.
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 8.—
The exuberance of American youth won a temporary victory today when the boy pupils of the Poughkeepsie High School went on strike today because the board of education ignored
their petition for a holiday.
The boys successfully resisted the efforts of Principal Fox and several police men who were called to his aid to protect the school property, and finally capped their victory by locking within the school building the principal and his blue coated assistants.

The boys then paraded the streets,
giving their school yell at every corner. The aftermath is likely to be wholesale expulsions. Superintendent Shea says he has the names of the leaders and will make them suffer the heaviest possible penalty.

being refused the right to vote under

Uniontown Will Poll a Large Vote

Special to The Courier.
UNIONTOWN, Nov. 8.—At noon today 370 votes had been cast in the four wards of Uniontown. The vote was as follows: First Ward, 147;
Second Ward, 89; Third Ward, 225;
Fourth Ward, 209.

The polls have been exceedingly quiet. Chairman Ash F. Williams stated this afternoon that there was no doubt but that the whole Republican ticket would have handsome majorities in Fayette county. Chairman Dawson, of the Keystone party, had no predictions to make. Neither has Chairman Carr for the Democrats.
Chairman Williams expects Uniontown will cast 2,400 votes.

Fall Crops of Peaches Reported From the Vicinity About Greensburg.

round, juicy, with the faint blush
of perfect ripening on their cheeks,
three lugelous peaches were brought into the Greensburg Tribune office by E. Plescher, Mine Boss at Carbon, Saturday morning. The peaches were a second crop grown on his trees at Carbon. They were probably one and one half inches in diameter and possessed the truly tantalizing odor and the indubitably good taste of peaches ripened under a summer sun and not in the hazy atmosphere of autumn.
Other horticultural wonders have been found in gardens of Westmoreland county people this month. Last

Give This a Thought Before Buying

Home Furnishings, Etc.

Giving you good service is considered just as important in the Aaron store as giving good furniture.

It is a wise policy, we think, to make ourselves of so much help in the selecting of goods, choosing of color schemes and picking of qualities that we become almost invaluable to our patrons.

We employ skilled, expert men in every department—men who are paid for telling you the straight, honest truth about any article you are thinking of buying.

If they think a certain rug or carpet will not harmonize with the color scheme of a certain room in your home, they will tell you so, rather than let you make a purchase that may ultimately prove unsatisfactory.

If something you buy does not look as nice at home as you thought it would, we are always glad to have you exchange it for something else. Or, if you prefer, we will return your money.

You see, there's nothing to prevent you from getting exactly what you want and what you ought to have.

We won't let you run risks. We won't let you make mistakes.

That is what we call "modern service." It doesn't cost you a penny, but it saves you very many dollars.

If you like this "Aaron Way" of giving every customer perfect satisfaction, think of us when next you need any of the articles in our vast assortments.

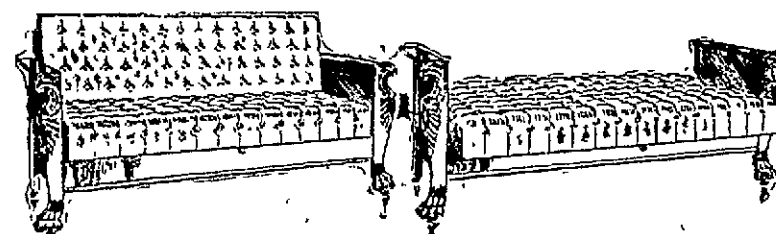

But Imitators Can't Compete With the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet.

HOOSIER SPECIAL

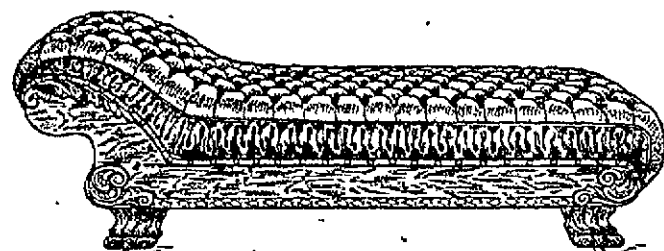

When an article becomes standard, it is imitated. Practically every kitchen cabinet manufactured is modeled nearly as possible after the Hoosier. But you won't find in any kitchen cabinet the high-grade material, the splendid craftsmanship, the fine durable finish, that distinguishes every kitchen cabinet with the Hoosier trade mark. Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets are made to last a life time—and to save a few thousand steps and two hours time every day. Particular people use them—they cost no more. A dollar a week.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 8, 1910.

WHEN IS A TRUST NOT A TRUST?

The threatened dissolution of numerous so-called trusts raises a question of far-reaching importance, not only to capital, but also to labor.

The principle upon which it is proposed to dissolve the trusts and resolve them back into their original elements is the ancient and honorable rule that combinations in restraint of trade are unlawful.

The question arises, When is a Trust not a Trust?

The modern Trust is merely a big corporation, usually built up by combination and absorption. How big must a corporation or combination of capital become to be classified as a Trust? Where shall the line be drawn?

In answering these questions, we are confronted with a process of reasoning which logically followed proves that all corporations and partnerships are trusts differing merely in size and not in principle.

Without the large combinations of capital which went to make up large corporations, this nation would have remained poor and unimportant.

The Indians and the buffaloes would have been roaming over the western plains and the development of our rich natural resources would have been confined chiefly to sections reached by navigable waters.

Another feature of the Trust-busting business is its relation to organized labor. Union labor is just as much a Trust as any other combination.

The decisions in the Trust cases will be watched with interest, but it is not anticipated that the Supreme Court will finally disturb business to follow technicalities.

THE CONNELLSVILLE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.
Connellsville will have a Teachers' Institute of its own without the aid or consent of any Uniontown interest, political or commercial.

The School Board, upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools and in deference to the undoubted sentiment of the community, voted last night to hold the institute during the holidays.

It will not compel the former to spend the holidays in Uniontown, nor the latter to return to school work before the festive season is fully over.

In order to make the institute a success, it will have to be managed properly, and a liberal proportion of the funds should be subscribed by local merchants and business interests as a matter of good business as well as proper public spirit.

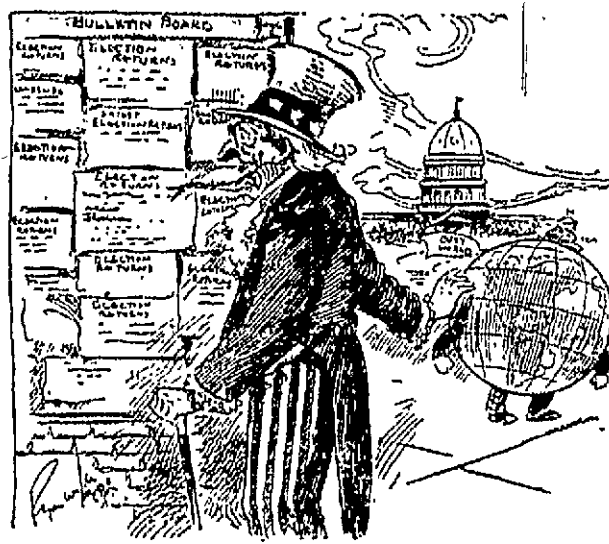

There are some sixty teachers employed in the Conneltsville schools, and a number of their holiday dollars have hitherto been spent in Uniontown because of their great attendance upon the county institute there. Then there is advertising value in the very fact that Conneltsville is big enough to hold her own teachers' institute. Let the contributions of the local interests be liberal.

The suggestion that the program include no evening lectures unless they are of the highest class is a wise one. A day of school work is sufficient without an evening of dull lecturing. Such lectures are usually dodged by the younger teachers anyhow. They prefer the theatre or some form of diversion, and they cannot be seriously blamed for it.

COMPANY STORES AND PEDDLING MERCHANTS.
Between the two merchants of peddling propensities and the company stores at the coke works of the Conneltsville region there is eternal and implacable war.

It began by the coke companies trying to prevent the vendors of the town traders from polluting the sacred soil of the coke villages, and it has arrived at the stage where the bold invaders seek to recover large sums in damages because agents of the company stores follow their wagons and try to dissuade their customers. The claim of trespass was not tenable, but the claim of damages is infinitely further fetched.

If it can be done without violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, we would suggest that the mercantile and

ELECTION DAY.

Uncle Sam—I am too much interested in this election to pay any attention to you until tomorrow, Mr. World.

Industrial interests of the coke region come to an amicable understanding respecting the division of the trade of the coke works. The company stores concede the business, that town stores may do in the towns, but they claim the business at the works.

Competition is a law of trade and a right guaranteed under the laws of the land. The town merchant has a right, therefore, to solicit business in the shadow of the company store.

Neither is there anything in the law which prevents the company store from setting up an establishment, or several of them, in the town, and entering into active and keen competition with the town merchants. Some company store corporations might make it decidedly interesting for the mercantile interests of any coke town.

But town merchants generally concede the claims of the company stores and are content to observe the unwritten law. It is only a small and comparatively unimportant trading interest that is causing all this legal wrangling.

SCHOOL FINANCES AND TAX COLLECTIONS.

The suggestion made in the School Board meeting last night, that the back taxes should be collected, should have received more attention than it did.

It seems from the report that there is approximately $12,000 uncollected taxes on duplicates running back to 1904, and not including taxes on the duplicates of 1910. If this money had been in the treasury, where it should have been, the board would not have a $40,000 deficit.

Connellsville people should get the habit of paying their taxes during the year they are levied and Conneltsville tax collectors should get the habit of making full settlements of their duplicates within the year of their issue.

The collectors are largely to blame for present conditions.

They can change them with the proper effort, and they ought to be helped thereby by the board.

"The most intelligent, instructive and interesting editorial in last night's edition of the Uniontown Sentinel was a half-column account of the attendance of the local schools in Uniontown."

Chipped will bet another breath, but the American friends will have to wait the attempt to pass. English justice doesn't seem to have been nearly on her slippers.

The Democratic campaign in Fayette county has not lacked for eloquence, but it went out this week in a blaze of glory. Chairman Carr's farcical address would make the Grand Young man of Indiana green with envy.

New construction in the Conneltsville coke region is the right kind of a straw vote. It means something.

It is evident that the election returns tonight will not please everybody.

When in doubt, place a single cross-mark in the first square at the top of the first column. There won't be any doubt about such a vote. It will be a vote for Protection and Prosperity, for Home and Happiness.

Availing, which has thus far been confined to the use of the teacher's union to undertake the utilization. The first biphasic express delivery is required. It was still, but it may grow to milk and ice and coal and garbage deliveries.

Up to date, the aviation prize money is several times about of the receipts from freight deliveries.

Preaching politics is a hard proposition to justify in the eyes of the church. It is a hard proposition to justify in the eyes of the church. It is a hard proposition to justify in the eyes of the church.

It is all over but the yelling, and the Pittsburgh women did some of that on their own back yesterday.

Hon. T. Robt. Deyanion prints the communications of Hon. Farmer Greasy. This is the same Greasy who bought the Democratic nomination for the State Senate in his district, this summer, and defeated and subsequently discredited the Uniontown candidate.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE WILL BE HELD IN CONNELLSVILLE.

School Board Decides District Break Away From County Seat Affair This Year.

MR. DEFFENBAUGH WANTS IT

Says He Can Provide a Good Course, Teachers Prefer to Remain Here For Lectures and Christmas Money Stays in Town.

Connellsville will have its own institute. This was decided at the regular meeting of the School Board last evening when the proposition of Borough Superintendent W. S. Deffenbaugh met with unanimous approval. The institute will cost the neighborhood of $500 as it is not proposed to have any evening entertainments, unless some exceptionally good speaker can be secured. Of this amount, $180 will be raised through the enrollment of teachers, $100 can probably be secured from the county and a prominent business man has pledged that at least $100 can be raised in the town, and possibly more. The holding of the institute here will give Connellsville local and county prestige to the extent that it is hoped in future years the County Superintendent will finally recognize the claim Connellsville has to holding the county institute here every other year. The absence of the 60 teachers from Connellsville will put a considerable strain on the attendance at the County Institute this year. It is proposed to hold the institute the week between Christmas and New Year's. This will eliminate the rather foolish and unsatisfactory habit of leaving the children their Christmas holidays the two weeks before Christmas and sending them back to their tasks before the holiday season is at an end. It will also mean that the 60 teachers will have no opportunity to do their Christmas shopping in Connellsville. Instead of spending a larger part of their holiday funds in Uniontown. The meeting last evening was largely attended. The hearing committee is now working a night shift and the men made considerable noise. There was a steam radiator in the room where the hearing was held that kept up an almost continual clatter.

Director James S. Darr carried a point when the Board voted to purchase the materials needed by the class in mechanical drawing. These costs cost the pupils $5, but will be purchased by the Board. The future pupils will be granted the privilege to purchase them at the end of the term if they so desire.

A vacancy having been caused by the removal of Dr. E. B. Dill from the Seventh Ward resulted in the election of A. W. Hart. Mr. Hart was chosen unanimously and his was the only name submitted.

Notes aggregating $18,672.50 were ordered paid, there having been issued from time to time to the Fayette Lumber Company for the erection of the new addition to the High School.

Chairman Armstrong of the Finance Committee complained that a large amount is due on back tax delinquents, but no action was taken by the board. Theodore White still owes $1,750.65; George B. Brown has $1,076.18 due on the 1909 delinquents and $5,640.92 on the 1908 delinquents. C. M. Miller owes $2,142.71 on the 1909 West Side delinquents, or practically one-fourth of that.

Minor reports were made by the Property, Building and Supply Committees. The action of Dr. Gallagher in directing that the High School be suspended was approved by the board. Director Darr called attention that no provision had been made for the removal of flies from the new boilers and this matter was referred to the Building Committee.

The Library Committee recommended that a payment be made and $1,000 was voted without dissent, the original action of $700 being increased by amendment.

The special committee on insurance reported that the amounts had been apportioned, but one change being made, that of reducing the insurance on furniture in the old Fourth Ward building from $2,000 to $1,000 and $1,000 being placed on the furniture in the Third Ward school, there being none. Chairman Thomas reported a total of $54,000 insurance on building and furniture for the High School.

At the request of Director Bailey, a communication from G. W. Folds of the H. W. Johnson-Bassett Company was read stating that the sample of asbestos sent him (being taken from the High School building) was known to the trade as 1-16 inch asbestos; or 20 pound weight, and that it was made from two distinct sheets. The letter further stated that asbestos is not recommended by that firm as the best material to use as a floor underlayment.

Directors White, Davidson and Bishop were appointed to confer with Superintendent Deffenbaugh relative to the seating of the South Side children; some rooms being overcrowded.

In the report of the visitors during the month, Director Hart J. Thomas reported that he found the building too warm the day he called and recommended that the matter be given more attention by the janitor. He said from 72 to 79 degrees is too warm; making the pupils restless. Director Thomas looked surprised at the laugh which greeted his remarks that "some teachers don't dress warm enough and expect the janitors to heat them up."

The Supply Committee was directed to purchase two school microscopes for the classes in botany and biology. This caused Director Dure to bring up the matter of purchasing drawing sets.

A. S. Hadden submitted his book, "Hendricks' and Washington's Expeditions," and asked that it be adopted as a text book. The matter was referred to the Supply Committee for a report at the next meeting.

The payment of $1,000 in bonds was authorized, the bonds maturing before the next meeting.

The question of coal weighing was raised. Secretary Thomas detailed a number of methods by which irregularities could occur. The matter was not acted upon.

Superintendent Deffenbaugh reported an enrollment of 2,125 during the past month with only 76 tardy marks, an exceptional record.

BLAME THE DOCTORS

For Being Chiefly Responsible for the Morphine Habit.

"NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(Special).—Blame for the prevalence and growth of the morphine habit was placed on physicians who prescribe the drug, at a meeting of druggists held here last night to protest against the city ordinance prohibiting the sale at retail of any preparation containing morphine or its salts except upon a doctor's prescription. The ordinance is aimed primarily at paragonic and at stomach remedies. A statement issued by the druggists says:

"In our opinion the two main causes of the morphine habit are the indiscriminate use of narcotics by physicians and the use of narcotics for recovery from the effects of alcoholism."

HISTORY MARKING CURIOS PASSING.

Those at the Custead Home Will be Scattered at Last.

LINKED WITH FAYETTE COUNTY

They Were Gathered by Rhoda L. and Elizabeth Custead of Brownfield—The Latter the Author of "Rose and Eliza" That Pictured the Life of "Old Place" Early Settlers.

An interesting sale will be held on January 11 at 1:30 in the afternoon at the premises near Brownfield, Fayette county. The sale is that of the personal property of Rhoda L. and Elizabeth K. Custead, and the lower of antiques and curios will find there many things that will be of interest.

Much of the history of Fayette county is marked by relics that these two ladies collected or had presented to them, and that stocked their house until it was like a museum, and surpassing a great many exhibits for home of the curios was typical but the genuine goods.

Elizabeth K. Custead was the author of "Rose and Eliza" in which was depicted with great fidelity and detail in story form the life of the early pioneers of "Old Place" their ancestors were pioneers of the true type, that came into the wilderness and fought its hardships and discouragements, or went out into other fields, where many of them won fame. But to these two old ladies, one of whom, Mrs. Elizabeth, died but recently, the history of past times was something precious and worthy of preservation.

Miss Custead with Col. Thomas B. Squibb who wrote "The Old Place Days" held a square in Fayette's life by depicting the times that are gone, and leaving a full history of those days, telling of the common things, and making an accurate record that will grow in value as the years pass by. In "Rose and Eliza" is told the authentic story of Polly Williams, the most complete and correct story that has ever been given of that century old tragedy, that still lives in the minds of men. At the sale there will be ancient cherry tables, old fashioned bureaus, desks, chairs, a wonderful globe and many other pictures, the geography in a way entirely different from what is shown now, bookcases, and many old and rare books, as well as more modern ones. With the selling of these goods will pass out of existence one of the most interesting collections in this end of the State, and it is probable that some museum will be enriched with historical additions from Fayette county. A great many people visited the house, where Miss Custead with her bright, cheerful conversation, and knowledge of affairs past and present was most interesting.

COKERS LOSE SNAPPY GAME TO M'KEESPORT CHAMPIONS.

Score is 41 to 30 and Locals Surprise Their Opponents by Unexpected Aggressiveness.

HARDLY EXPECTED TO WIN

Team is Haddressed by Lack of Practice and Absence of Center Man. Uniontown Severely Drubbed by South Side, Score 28 to 15.

South Side 28, Uniontown 15.

The Cokers lost their first game at McKeesport last evening by the score of 41 to 30. The opening game of the Tubo City was witnessed by 1,500 enthusiastic fans, including not a few Connellsville rooters.

The game was fast throughout. There was not a substitution and time was not called once. Last year's champions were in their best and showed the advantage of a longer training period. The fouling was frequent. Captain Sears of the Tubers made 23 tries and scored 21 of them. Captain Kummer threw 18 of his 23.

The score was 29 to 12 at the end of the first half. In the second half Kld Dark broke into the game by shooting four baskets in quick succession. Dark and Doherty were the only Cokers fortunate to land shots in the basket.

The Connellsville team showed up well in every department of the game except at center. But Doyle did the best he knew how. Doyle is not a center man and admits it. As a defender is one of the best centers in the league, Doyle had his hands full.

The Cokers made their best showing in the early part of the second half but could not keep up the pace. They were in the game all the time, however, and McKeesport had no chance to loaf. Captain Kummer showed marked improvement in his foul shooting, throwing 18 out of 23. The team returned to Connellsville on the last night. The boys rest today and take Uniontown on in the opening game here tomorrow. The score:

McKeesport 41, Connellsville 30.
O'Donnell Forward
Dugale Forward
Getzinger Center
Sears Center
Morris Guard
Doherty Guard

Field goals—O'Donnell 2, Getzinger 2, Sears 2, Morris 2, Doherty 1. Free throws 21 out of 23. Kummer 18 out of 23.

Referee—Wetzel.
Time of halves—29 minutes.

COMEDY OR JUST BIT OF PLAIN BONEHEAD WORK IN PITTSBURG?

Every Smoky City Paper This Morning Had Johnston Playing McKeesport.

Was it a bit of cheap comedy, or just a case of solid ivory that led all the Pittsburgh newspapers to print this morning that "Johnston lost" the opening game with McKeesport? Connellsville played at McKeesport, every paper in Pittsburgh printed the headline yesterday morning that the Cokers would play, yet along comes every morning paper there putting Johnston in the game.

If it and only been the Gazette. Then the matter might have been passed over as merely an example of how a political campaign gets on the nerves. But to have the Post and Dispatch do the same thing is almost unheard of.

The Dispatch is the official paper of the Central league. The sporting editor might make this in his hat. Kummer, Dark, Doyle, Sears and Doherty play in Connellsville, not Johnston.

Game Laws in Maryland Complicated And Confusing to the Sportsmen.

There is probably no other State in the Union that has such a puzzling medley of game laws as Maryland. A search through the records probably will show that there has not been a Maryland legislature during the past half century that has not done something in the way of remodeling the game statutes. Nearly every Maryland county has a batch of special game laws, and the general laws regulating the shooting or trapping of game are more or less revised every legislative year.

In ten of the Maryland counties the game season for rabbits and quail opened yesterday. In the other counties the date of opening of the rabbit and quail season varies from October 15 to November 15. The closing date for these two species varies from November 1 to February 1. And so there are varying laws regulating the hunting of quail, grouse, wild turkey, doves, woodcock, red birds, plover,

SOCIAL AFFAIR

For Students of Music at Home of Mrs. Ellsworth Evans.

Mrs. Ellsworth Evans was hostess at a very enjoyable social function Friday, Nov. 1 at her home at Dawson.

The affair was given in honor of students in music and was very cleverly arranged. Decorations suggestive of Halloween prevailed. Jack-o'-lanterns and autumn leaves were lavishly used in all the rooms. The invitations, which were painted by the hostess, were very artistic in the shape of pumpkins and also engraved with the following: "P. M. 8 to 10-10; 10 to 11; 11 to 12. The guests were kept guessing as to the nature of the entertainment until their arrival at the Evans home when it proved to be the old saying, "Gobble, gobble, gitt." A musical contest was the first part of the program, the prize for the largest number of correct answers being awarded to Miss Bess Johnson. The next feature was a corn hunt contest. The prize was awarded to Miss Esther Stover, for not being so greedy. Miss Stover found the smallest number of grains. The next number on the program was the finding by each guest of their name on the place cards. The names were scattered in a verse. The prize, a handsome book, was won by Miss Bess Baricklow.

The luncheon consisted of all the delicacies of the season and was highly enjoyed by the guests. The dining room was dimly lighted with atmospheric fires flickered from pumpkins. The lights were at each place. Autumn leaves and large chrysanthemums formed the attractive centerpiece. During the evening music was rendered by Miss Helen Bell Bush, a sister of the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Evans' pupils. Their work showed that they were making excellent progress in music. Miss Ruth Donley of East Liberty was an honor guest. Miss Donley played several piano solos in a manner which was very creditable to her.

At 11:30 the guests departed for their respective homes after having spent a very delightful evening as the guests of Mrs. Evans, who proved herself to be a very charming hostess.

But this suffering will soon be forgotten, and there will be no more suffering, if relief is obtained from a safe, reliable, natural corrective medicine.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

ought to be on hand in every home ready for use at first sign of trouble.

This famous family remedy has proved in years and years of trial its power to correct physical trouble and to ward off disease.

Try for yourself—or in your home, a few doses and see how the bodily system is strengthened and refreshed and how surely and effectively they.

Everybody Says

This sale is a success. Couldn't be otherwise, because Connellsville women know that our word is reliable. They know that it's about once in a age such conditions favor our buying—perhaps never again. Suit strike and warm weather went hard with the makers.
